(A)

AMA opposes discrimination in par and non-par, No. 5, p. 100.

AMA's newest version of CPT now available, No. 5, p. 123.

AMA's proposed new principles of ethics need physicians' comments, suggestions, No. 8, p. 172.

AMACO reports new activities by other state medical societies, No. 11, p. 185.

AMSA-MECO project introducing 32 Michigan med students to community practice, by Maryanne Butt, No. 16, p. 319.

'A day in the life' -- MSMS staff fields a variety of requests, suggestions, by Katie Brewbaker, No. 35, p. 670.

Administrators, planners, plotters and schemers, by Louis E. Heideman, MD, No. 35, p. 698.

Admissions committees have enormous job, by Ralph E. Louis, No. 13, p. 249.

Adult blacks to be surveyed by U-M researchers, No. 20, p. 374.

(The) advantages to MD and patient of outpatient surgery, by Gerald E. Butler, MD, No. 26, p. 502.

Auxilians have strong commitment to AMA's Educational Research Fund, by Anita Yannitelli, No. 35, p. 684.

Auxilians hear advice for better communications, by Willah Weddon, No. 29, p. 547.

Auxilians welcome opportunities to work closely with medical society, by Anita Yannitelli, No. 26, p. 514.

(B)

(The) birthing room concept and how it works in Kalamazoo, by Willah Weddon, No. 13, p. 302.

Blues continuing tactics used since birth, despite MDs' objections, by Harold J. Meier, MD, No. 13, p. 268.

Board of Medicine goal to shape complete guidelines of patient care, by Charles Downs, No. 35, p. 690.

(C)

CME Programming Committee Activities Continue, by Katie Brewbaker, No. 2, p. 63.

CME Programming Committee plans MSMS courses, No. 20, p. 399.

Careful handling of written consent minimizes risk, No. 8, p. 160.

Certified business consultant your best bet for help, by John A. Richards, No. 20, p. 374.

(The) challenge: qualifying for money without losing individuality, by John A. Gronvall, MD, No. 13, p. 246.

Component, specialty leaders to learn MSMS media tips, No. 35, p. 672.

Costs should be conserved by high standards, not denial, by Yong Hwa Park, MD, No. 5, p. 83.

(D)

Dangers of dropping malpractice, No. 11, p. 206.

Deans Council developing medical-legal curriculum for MDs, No. 8, p. 152.

Detroit gains recognition as comprehensive cancer center, No. 26, p. 520.

Detroit Plaza biggest, most unusual Michigan hotel, by C.R. Shelton, No. 26, p. 476.

Disciplinary actions against MDs have tripled in past five years, No. 2, p. 64.

Disciplinary actions of the Medical Practice Board taken Jan. 4, Feb. 16 and March 8, 1978, No. 13, p. 306.

Discovering truth requires perspective, by Louis E. Heideman, MD, No. 16, p. 360.

Doctor Papo has organized practice well, No. 8, p. 158.

Doctor Sweeny, AMA Council chairman, likes 'being where important action is,' by C.R. Shelton, No. 29, p. 555.

Doctor Wilson speaks out as new Medical Practice Board head, by Jane Haradine, No. 11, p. 214.

Doctor, you can earn CME credits at home with these helps, by Marcelyn Ireland, No. 5, p. 12.

(E)

Election primer: Part one: Legislative turnovers ahead, by Gary Anderson, No. 29, p. 531.

Election primer: Part two: the candidates, William G. Milliken (p. 532), William B. Fitzgerald (p. 532), Robert P. Griffin (p. 533), Carl Levin (p. 533), No. 29, p. 532-3.

Election primer: Part three: the ballot issues summarized, No. 29, p. 534.

(F)

First UP med students graduate, No. 20, p. 390.

Former state department director talks about mental health care, by Donald C. Smith, MD, No. 26, p. 512.

Forty-five Years Ago! MSMS adopted these 12 MSMS principles, responsibilities, rights, No. 29, p. 544.

(G)

Growth of MSMS services reason for Stockwell building, by John R. Ylvisaker, MD, No. 35, p. 666.

(H)

Health care planning in Michigan - Part I: What's happened since HSAs were created, by Sherry Wellman, No. 5, p. 73.

Health care planning in Michigan - Part II: How Michigan planning process is organized, by Andrew D. Hunt, Jr., MD, No. 5, p. 74.

Health care planning in Michigan - Part III: Labor sees two goals: one is physician accountability, by Paul Massaron, No. 5, p. 76.

Health, nutrition survey underway, No. 16, p. 326.

Healthy mother and baby goal of MSMS Maternal/Perinatal Committee, by Lee B. Stevenson, MD, No. 20, p. 361.

Help with the burden of managing retirement trusts, by David Buegeleisen, No. 2, p. 57.

Helping doctors to teach better, No. 2, p. 4.

Here are administrators, faculty heads at Michigan's three medical schools, No. 2, p. 48.

Here are first guides on cost awareness from MSMS task force, No. 16, p. 317.

Here are Michigan laws regarding treatment of minors in regular, emergency cases, No. 20, p. 365.

Here is current list of officers of Michigan specialty groups, No. 29, p. 561.

Here is second MSMS report on Michigan medical malpractice claims, by John A. Richards, No. 13, p. 272.

Here's definitive description of disability determination system, by Harry D. Nesmith, MD, No. 5, p. 119.

Here's the latest information on HMOs now developing in Michigan, by Richard Campau, No. 16, p. 331.

Hospital staff privileges reviewed in article, No. 11, p. 237.

Hotline helps, No. 20, p. 367.

(9,500) hours of CME credit granted at Annual Session; 1,325 physicians enrolled, No. 2, p. 2.

How new CME laws have affected Michigan MD stats, No. 5, p. 110.

How new state health plan would interface with other health care programs, by Judith Marr, No. 35, p. 650.

How to impact CME on causes of death, No. 2, p. 4.

(I)

If we listen, the ancients have words for us, by Vernon V. Bass, MD, No. 5, p. 77.

'It's rewarding to associate with such giving people,' by Millicent Lane, No. 8, p. 146.

(J)

JCAH recruiting physicians to serve as surveyors, No. 8, p. 135.

(K)

Kellogg funds MDPH to establish cost-effective outpatient data system, No. 29, p. 587.

(L)

LCC offers credit hours for taking good care of your heart, No. 2, p. 50.

(The) latest on Michigan's arbitration system with typical questions answered, by Michael R. Arford, No. 11, p. 208.

Learn more about public policies affecting medicine at MSMS workshop, No. 26, p. 504.

Learned professions must correct incorrect ideas, by Vernon V. Bass, MD, No. 8, p. 129.

Legal myths that persist, by A. Stewart Kerr, No. 11, p. 206.

Legislative Day speaker turns biased view on Washington, by Willah Weddon, No. 8, p. 155.

Let us hope physicians don't permit mediocrities of socialized medicine, by James J. Coury, MD, No. 20, p. 406.

'Living will' bill acceptable to legislation committee, No. 5, p. 86.

(M)

MDs important link to Child Find, No. 20, p. 367.

MDs need to identify, correct problems with patients, by Susan Adelman, MD, No. 2, p. 16.

MDPAC receives national leadership award, No. 26, p. 492.

MECO Program in seventh year, No. 8, p. 149.

MHA survey reveals attitudes on medical costs, No. 16, p. 335.

MPB liaison committee tackles PA rules, No. 20, p. 399.

MSGS reactivates in 1978, No. 16, p. 326.

MSMS adds new dimension to journalism study at Michigan State University, by Katie Brewbaker, No. 8, p. 162.

MSMS expanding activities in socioeconomics of health care, by John Richards, No. 8, p. 125.

MSMS helps physicians use offices efficiently, No. 8, p. 126.

MSMS journal tops in advertising revenue increases, No. 2, p. 72.

MSMS Liaison Committee gathers state board members, by Katie Brewbaker, No. 16, p. 328.

MSMS' own data will aid MDs in attacking hearsay claims, by C. R. Shelton, No. 8, p. 126.

MSMS' newest survey discloses members' Blues activities, by John Richards, No. 8, p. 131.

MSMS policy: Marijuana penalties too stiff, No. 5, p. 86.

MSMS responds to recommendations of Preliminary State Health Plan, No. 35, p. 651.

MSMS Scientific Meeting Nov. 7-8-9 offers wealth of courses, speakers, activities, by Herb Auer, No. 29, p. 537.

MSMS Scientific Meeting offers new opportunities for practicing physicians to meet educational needs, by Carl F. Hammerstrom, MD, No. 29, p. 588.

MSMS subcommittee promoting regionalized perinatal care in Michigan, by James R. Irwin, MD, No. 20, p. 363.

MSMS serves physicians in many ways, No. 2, p. 7.

MSMS surveys will provide valuable facts, No. 8, p. 126.

MSMS task force chairman believes hospitals, physicians must do much about costs, by Elizabeth Cummins, No. 16, p. 316.

MSMS task force has two priorities for cost control, No. 5, p. 86.

MSMS working closely with new health data group, No. 29, p. 558.

MSMS working on many fronts to combat rising health care costs, by Richard M. Campau, No. 16, p. 315.

MSU expands in UP, No. 29, p. 583.

MSU med school concerned with Washington, progress on campus, by W. Donald Weston, MD, No. 13, p. 248.

MSU medical school paper 'best in country,' No. 16, p. 352.

Manner in which arbitration offered key to its public acceptance, No. 20, p. 396.

(1978) Maternal Health Conference saw changes, No. 13, p. 299.

(1979) Maternal Health Conference Feb. 28-March 1 in Dearborn, by Katie Brewbaker, No. 35, p. 672.

Maternal tissue registry vital link between obstetricians and pathologists, by Ronald Nishiyama, MD, No. 20, p. 364.

Mark Campbell cartoons, too, by Jane Haradine, No. 2, p. 36.

Mark Russell featured at Legislative Day April 18, No. 8, p. 155.

Medical Practice Board's job has to be done; it's best done by physicians, says President Wilson, by Charles Downs, No. 29, p. 566.

Medical school enrollments increase in 1977, No. 5, p. 117.

Medical schools caught by conflicting forces, by Ralph E. Lewis, No. 13, p. 245.

Meet the course directors for MSMS Scientific Meeting, No. 26, p. 474.

Meet Doctor Griffin, MSMS president-elect, by Judith Marr, No. 29, p. 556.

Meet Louis E. Heideman, MD, MSMS president, by Judith E. Marr, No. 26, p. 482.

Michigan doctors' unity demonstrated in Blues protest, by Vernon V. Bass, MD, No. 2, p. 5.

(1878) Michigan Medical News strove to be 'live, practical journal,' by Maryanne Butt, No. 11, p. 203.

Michigan Medicine takes first place in national competition, No. 16, p. 322.

Michigan men advise world medical meeting, No. 29, p. 552.

Michigan Physicians Mutual Liability Company strong and growing, by Suzanne Ludwig, No. 11, p. 183.

Michigan snow skiing techniques all wrong for the caribous, by Robert J. Toteff, MD, No. 5, p. 94.

Michigan State Medical Society - working for you in many ways, No. 11, p. 241.

Michigan transplant societies: what they do, where they are, by Charles Downs, No. 13, p. 292.

Michigan's mental health system builds on developments of past decades, No. 13, p. 282.

Michigan's only AMA trustee believes AMA keeps profession viable, by C. R. Shelton, No. 26, p. 507.

Much closer cooperation needed to improve care of elderly, by Charles W. Shipman, MD, No. 13, p. 267.

Much sensitivity needed in dealing with infants' families, by Maryanne Butt, No. 13, p. 300.

(N)

National association joins MPMLC with other physician-owned companies, No. 11, p. 186.

New CME rules and regs went into effect Nov. 3 - here are excerpts, No. 35, p. 674.

New drug lag not indigenous to US:FDA head, No. 8, p. 145.

New HEW report reveals status of nation's health, No. 2, p. 52.

New labeling for contraceptives in Federal Register, No. 8, p. 180.

New survey of Michigan's health personnel of major importance to future growth, by Charles Downs, No. 35, p. 662.

New trend sees Michigan hospitals combining in various multi-unit arrangements, by Ellen Louhi, No. 29, p. 576.

New Wayne, U-M clinics aid pain victims, elderly, No. 2, p. 28.

No such thing as a free lunch, No. 8, p. 140.

Nothing can bring you peace but the triumph of principle, by Vernon V. Bass, MD, No. 11, p. 187.

(O)

OCMS review of lab arrangements strengthens medical care delivery in that county, by C. R. Shelton, No. 29, p. 551.

Oakland University establishes model for employee preventive health program, by Alfred W. Stransky, PhD, No. 26, p. 522.

Opportunity or threat, health planning needs MDs' action, by Kenneth J. Ray, MD, No. 35, p. 649.

Our health care must meet needs and permit us to function well, by Louis E. Heideman, MD, No. 13, p. 314.

(P)

PA 339 no satisfactory solution to public drunkenness problem, by Richard Bates, MD, No. 11, p. 226.

PS Committee hears reports of TV shows, No. 5, p. 86.

Physicians and nurses planning together will best promote welfare of the patient, by Ann M. Zuzich, RN, No. 20, p. 404.

Physicians' incomes increasing slower than most, No. 2, p. 60.

Physicians must be selfish with statutes defining medicine, by Archie M. Bedell, MD, No. 20, p. 405.

Physicians must restore that out-of-fashion word, by Norton Cooksey, MD, No. 2, p. 33.

Physicians should take the lead in patient education programs, by Donald J. Breckon, MPH, PhD, No. 2, p. 11.

Physicians' role in dental health focus of program, No. 8, p. 149.

'Physicians very precise, and they evaluate your credibility,' journalism students told, No. 20, p. 389.

Placental registry review shows research needed, No. 2, p. 49.

Placental tissue registry important to health of future mothers and infants, by Charles H. Sander, MD, No. 20, p. 362.

Prescribe with caution and lessen risk, No. 5, p. 99.

Presidents, secretaries, addresses of Michigan component societies, No. 11, p. 236.

Progress report: MSMS headquarters addition goes up, No. 35, p. 665.

(Q)

Question: Must physician or insurance company report examination results to patient? No. 5, p. 100.

(R)

Real estate tax shelter has attractive advantages for MDs, by Gary W. Brya, CPA, No. 20, p. 368.

Rebuttal: PAs not technicians, but educated professionals, by William G. Birch, Sr., MD, No. 29, p. 564.

Republican task force studying Michigan physician distribution, by Gene Hashley, No. 2, p. 35.

Running Scared, by Louis E. Heideman, MD, No. 26, p. 526.

(S)

Scenes of 1977 MSMS Scientific Meeting, No. 2, p. 26.

Scientific Meeting leaders urge attendance Nov. 7-8-9, No. 26, p. 473.

Scientific Meeting opening stacked with drawing cards, No. 26, p. 527.

Scientific programs offered members by MSMS CME Programming Committee, No. 2, p. 1.

Second opinion issue not one for government mandates, by Louis R. Zako, MD, No. 26, p. 477.

Sen. Otterbacher wants to help shape NHI, by Willah Weddon, No. 8, p. 156.

Speaker Crim: social compact likely in health, by Willah Weddon, No. 16, p. 340.

(The) stakes are enormous -- we need our strong AMA voice, by Brooker L. Masters, MD, No. 35, p. 678.

State should pay for SIDS autopsies, by Robert E. Fisher, MD, No. 8, p. 145.

State's studies show no pattern of immunological problems due to PBB, No. 2, p. 25.

Statement of ownership, management and circulation of Michigan Medicine, No. 35, p. 676.

Study shows Michigan Medicine well read, by Judith Marr, No. 2, p. 72.

(T)

Take a close look at salaries of employees in your office, by R. Timothy Hogan, No. 35, p. 678.

Testifying in court soon? Keep these tips in mind, No. 5, p. 98.

Theatres, Meadowbrook Music Festival, opera active during MSMS Scientific Meeting, No. 26, p. 529.

These are gratifying times for family practice, by George A. Dean, MD, No. 5, p. 84.

Things MDs should know about new tax laws, No. 5, p. 106.

Toxic chemicals must be considered when patients present with symptoms, by C. R. Shelton, No. 2, p. 25.

Travel tours beckon MSMS members, No. 2, p. 62.

Two Michigan men key figures in London conference this summer, No. 16, p. 336.

(U)

U-M makes progress on SIDS research, No. 13, p. 290.

Understanding, respect, trust, unselfishness needed, by Daniel J. Wilhelm, MD, No. 16, p. 345.

University of Gasgow pharmacologist heads cast of speakers at Ren Center, No. 26, p. 528.

(V)

(W)

WJR's medical theme day a great success, by Mert Scholten, No. 13, p. 254.

WSU establishes MD practice plan for clinical services, No. 29, p. 552.

WSU search begun for new vice president of health affairs, No. 29, p. 552.

Wayne report reveals pressures on today's medical schools, by Robert D. Coye, MD, No. 13, p. 247.

We must pay and support MDs to serve on planning boards, by James D. Fryfogle, MD, No. 5, p. 124.

We should study problems of child abuse reporting, by Douglas Sargent, MD, No. 8, p. 138.

What to expect and do if you are sued, No. 13, p. 289.

When you can't raise fees to cope with rising overhead, by R. Timothy Hogan, No. 26, p. 501.

Why psychiatrists question Blues programs for clinics, by Douglas A. Sargent, MD, No. 2, p. 14.

Working together: hospital administrators and staff, by Alexander Blain, III, MD, No. 16, p. 344.

(XYZ)

'You ain't seen nothin' yet!' by Louis E. Heideman, No. 20, p. 418.

Your good records may win a lawsuit, No. 2, p. 64.

(A)

Adelman, Susan, MD, MDs need to identify, correct problems with patients, No. 2, p. 16.

Anderson, Gary, Election primer: Part one: Legislative turnovers ahead, No. 29, p. 531.

Arford, Michael R., The latest on Michigan's arbitration system with typical questions answered, No. 11, p. 208.

Auer, Herb, MSMS Scientific Meeting Nov. 7-8-9 offers wealth of courses, speakers, activities, No. 29, p. 537.

(B)

Bass, Vernon V., MD, If we listen, the ancients have words for us, No. 5, p. 77.

Bass, Vernon V., MD, Learned professions must correct incorrect ideas, No. 8, p. 129.

Bass, Vernon V., MD, Michigan doctors' unity demonstrated in Blues protest, No. 2, p. 5.

Bass, Vernon V., MD, Nothing can bring you peace but the triumph of principle, No. 11, p. 187.

Bates, Richard, MD, PA 339 no satisfactory solution to public drunkenness problem, No. 11, p. 226.

Bedell, Archie M., MD, Physicians must be selfish with statutes defining medicine, No. 20, p. 405.

Birch, William G., Sr., MD, Rebuttal: PAs not technicians, but educated professionals, No. 29, p. 564.

Breckon, Donald J., MPH, PhD, Physicians should take the lead in patient education programs, No. 2, p. 11.

Brewbaker, Katie, 'A day in the life' -- MSMS staff fields a variety of requests, suggestions, No. 35, p. 670.

Brewbaker, Katie, CME Programming Committee Activities Continue, No. 2, p. 63.

Brewbaker, Katie, MSMS adds new dimension to journalism study at Michigan State University, No. 8, p. 162.

Brewbaker, Katie, MSMS Liaison Committee gathers state board members, No. 16, p. 328.

Brewbaker, Katie, 1979 Maternal Health Conference Feb. 28-March 1 in Dearborn, No. 35, p. 672.

Brya, Gary W., CPA, Real estate tax shelter has attractive advantages for MDs No. 20, p. 368.

Buegeleisen, David, Help with the burden of managing retirement trusts, No. 2, p. 57.

Butler, Gerald E., MD, The advantages to MD and patient of outpatient surgery, No. 26, p. 502.

Butt, Maryanne, AMSA-MECO project introducing 32 Michigan med students to community practice, No. 16, p. 319.

Butt, Maryanne, 1878 Michigan Medical News strove to be 'live, practical journal,' No. 11, p. 203.

Butt, Maryanne, Much sensitivity needed in dealing with infants' families, No. 13, p. 300.

(C)

Campau, Richard, Here's the latest information on HMOs now developing in Michigan, No. 16, p. 331.

Campau, Richard M., MSMS working on many fronts to combat rising health care costs, No. 16, p. 315.

Cooksey, Norton, MD, Physicians must restore that out-of-fashion word, No. 2, p. 33.

Coury, James J., Let us hope physicians don't permit mediocrities of socialized medicine, No. 20, p. 406.

Cummins, Elizabeth, MSMS task force chairman believes hospitals, physicians must do much about costs, No. 16, p. 316.

(D)

Dean, George A., MD, These are gratifying times for family practice, No. 5, p. 84.

Downs, Charles, Board of Medicine goal to shape complete guidelines of patient care, No. 35, p. 690.

Downs, Charles, Medical Practice Board's job has to be done; it's best done by physicians, says President Wilson, No. 29, p. 566.

Downs, Charles, Michigan transplant societies: what they do, where they are, No. 13, p. 292.

Downs, Charles, New survey of Michigan's health personnel of major importance to future growth, No. 35, p. 662.

(F)

Fisher, Robert E., MD, State should pay for SIDS autopsies, No. 8, p. 145.

Fitzgerald, William B., Election primer: Part two: the candidates, William G. Milliken, William B. Fitzgerald, Robert P. Griffin, Carl Levin, No. 29, p. 532-3.

Fryfogle, James D., MD, We must pay and support MDs to serve on planning boards, No. 5, p. 124.

(G)

Griffin, Robert P., Election primer: Part two: the candidates, No. 29, p. 533.

Gronvall, John A., MD, The challenge: qualifying for money without losing individuality, No. 13, p. 246.

(H)

Hammerstrom, Carl F., MD, MSMS Scientific Meeting offers new opportunities for practicing physicians to meet educational needs, No. 29, p. 588.

Haradine, Jane, Doctor Wilson speaks out as new Medical Practice Board head, No. 11, p. 214.

Haradine, Jane, Mark Campbell cartoons, too, No. 2, p. 36.

Hashley, Gene, Republican task force studying Michigan physician distribution, No. 2, p. 35.

Heideman, Louis E., MD, Administrators, planners, plotters and schemers, No. 35, p. 698.

Heideman, Louis E., MD, Discovering truth requires perspective, No. 16, p. 360.

Heideman, Louis E., MD, Our health care must meet needs and permit us to function well, No. 13, p. 314.

Heideman, Louis E., MD, Running Scared, No. 26, p. 526.

Heideman, Louis E., MD, 'You ain't seen nothin' yet!', No. 20, p. 418.

Hogan, R. Timothy, Take a close look at salaries of employees in your office, No. 35, p. 678.

Hogan, R. Timothy, When you can't raise fees to cope with rising overhead, No. 26, p. 501.

Hunt, Andrew D., Jr., MD, Health care planning in Michigan - Part II: How Michigan planning process is organized, No. 5, p. 74.

(I)

Ireland, Marcelyn, Doctor, you can earn CME credits at home with these helps, No. 5, p. 12.

Irwin, James R., MD, MSMS subcommittee promoting regionalized perinatal care in Michigan, No. 20, p. 363.

(J)

(K)

Kerr, Stewart A., Legal myths that persist, No. 11, p. 206.

(L)

Lane, Millicent, 'It's rewarding to associate with such giving people,' No. 8, p. 146.

Levin, Carl, Election primer: Part two: the candidates, No. 29, p. 533.

Lewis, Ralph E., Admissions committees have enormous job, No. 13, p. 249.

Lewis, Ralph E., Medical schools caught by conflicting forces, No. 13, p. 245.

Louhi, Ellen, New trend sees Michigan hospitals combining in various multi-unit arrangements, No. 29, p. 576.

Ludwig, Suzanne, Michigan Physicians Mutual Liability Company strong and growing, No. 11, p. 183.

(M)

Marr, Judith, How new state health plan would interface with other health care programs, No. 35, p. 650.

Marr, Judith, Meet Doctor Griffin, MSMS president-elect, No. 29, p. 556.

Marr, Judith, Meet Louis E. Heideman, MD, MSMS president, No. 26, p. 482.

Marr, Judith, Study shows Michigan Medicine well read, No. 2, p. 72.

Massaron, Paul, Health care planning in Michigan - Part III: Labor sees two goals: one is physician accountability, No. 5, p. 76.

Masters, Brooker L., MD, The stakes are enormous -- we need our strong AMA voice, No. 35, p. 678.

Meier, Harold J., MD, Blues continuing tactics used since birth, despite MDs' objections, No. 13, p. 268.

Milliken, William G., Election primer: Part two: the candidates, No. 29, p. 532.

(N)

Nesmith, Harry D., MD, Here's definitive description of disability determination system, No. 5, p. 119.

Nishiyama, Ronald, MD, Maternal tissue registry vital link between obstetricians and pathologists, No. 20, p. 364.

(O)

(P)

Park, Yong Hwa, MD, Costs should be conserved by high standards, not denial, No. 5, p. 83.

(Q)

(R)

Ray, Kenneth J., MD, Opportunity or threat, health planning needs MDs' action, No. 35, p. 649.

Richards, John A., Certified business consultant your best bet for help, No. 20, p. 374.

Richards, John A., Here is second MSMS report on Michigan medical malpractice claims, No. 13, p. 272.

Richards, John A., MSMS expanding activities in socioeconomics of health care, No. 8, p. 125.

Richards, John A., MSMS' newest survey discloses members' Blues activities, No. 8, p. 131.

Sander, Charles H., MD, Placental tissue registry important to health of future mothers and infants, No. 20, p. 362.

Sargent, Douglas, MD, We should study problems of child abuse reporting, No. 8, p. 138.

Sargent, Douglas, MD, Why psychiatrists question Blues programs for clinics, No. 2, p. 14.

Scholten, Mert, WJR's medical theme day a great success, No. 13, p. 254.

Shelton, C. R., Detroit Plaza biggest, most unusual Michigan hotel, No. 26, p. 476.

Shelton, C. R., Doctor Sweeny, AMA Council chairman, likes 'being where important action is,' No. 29, p. 555.

Shelton, C. R., MSMS' own data will aid MDs in attacking hearsay claims, No. 8, p. 126.

Shelton, C. R., Michigan's only AMA trustee believes AMA keeps profession viable, No. 26, p. 507.

Shelton, C. R., Toxic chemicals must be considered when patients present with symptoms, No. 2, p. 25.

Shipman, Charles W., Much closer cooperation needed to improve care of elderly, No. 13, p. 267.

Smith, Donald C., MD, Former state department director talks about mental health care, No. 26, p. 512.

Stevenson, Lee B., MD, Healthy mother and baby goal of MSMS Maternal/Perinatal Committee, No. 20, p. 361.

Stransky, Alfred W., PhD, Oakland University establishes model for employee preventive health program, No. 26, p. 522.

(T)

Toteff, Robert J., MD, Michigan snow skiing techniques all wrong for the caribous, No. 5, p. 94.

(U)

(V)

(W)

Weddon, Willah, Auxilians hear advice for better communications, No. 29, p. 547.

Weddon, Willah, The birthing room concept and how it works in Kalamazoo, No. 13, p. 302.

Weddon, Willah, Legislative Day speaker turns biased view on Washington, No. 8, p. 155.

Weddon, Willah, Sen. Otterbacher wants to help shape NHI, No. 8, p. 156.

Weddon, Willah, Speaker Crim: social compact likely in health, No. 16, p. 340.

Wellman, Sherry, Health care planning in Michigan - Part I: What's happened since HSAs were created, No. 5, p. 73.

Weston, W. Donald, MSU med school concerned with Washington, progress on campus, No. 13, p. 248.

Wilhelm, Daniel J., Understanding, respect, trust, unselfishness needed, No. 16, p. 345.

(XYZ)

Yannitelli, Anita, Auxilians have strong commitment to AMA's Educational Research Fund, No. 35, p. 684.

Yannitelli, Anita, Auxilians welcome opportunities to work closely with medical society, No. 26, p. 514.

Ylvisaker, John R., MD, Growth of MSMS services reason for Stockwell building, No. 35, p. 666.

Zako, Louis R., MD, Second opinion issue not one for government mandates, No. 26, p. 477.

Zuzich, Ann M., RN, Physicians and nurses planning together will best promote welfare of the patient, No. 20, p. 404.